MIDNIGHT MAN

*Many Men Who Had Been Attending a Mission in the Redemption Church Joined in Search for Two Thugs.

KNOCKED MR. SULLIVAN DOWN AND ROBBED HIM.

The Crowd Hunted in Vain, but troubles and all wasting diseases. Detective Flynn Arrested Two Rough Looking Individuals at a Hotel.

Residents of the Fordham section of the Bronx who had participated in a midnight search through swamps and tangled underbrush for two highwaymen who brutally attacked and robbed Jeremiah Sullivan, a clerk of the New York Central Railroad, living at No. 692 East One Hundred and Eighty-third-street, were surprised to learn to-day that while they were still in their strenuous pursuit two men answering the descriptions of the thugs were arrested in a hotel on Third avenue and One Hundred and Eighty-third street in an unusual manner.

Mr. Sullivan, after working late in his office last night, returned home, walking through Bassford avenue, Suddenly a man jumped from behind a tree and struck him over the head with a bludgeon. Sullivan managed to cry for help. Then he received a blow from the club that split open his head and gendered him unconscious. Heard by a Detective.

Sullivan was heard by Detective Lynch, of the Church street station, as he was standing on the porch of his house, a block away, at No. 2321 Washington avenue Lynch drew his rethick fog in the direction of the shout.

As he turned the corner into Bassford avenue he saw a man running in the direction of the Redemption Church.

Lynch was about to shoot when he saw through the mist a crowd of men and women coming out of the church. They had been attending a mission meeting, and by the time the detective reached the throng the fleeling highwayman had escaped.

As soon as the detective explained the situation the men divided into two parties and searched through the district. One party came upon the unconscious form of the highwayman's victim and carried him to his home. His money, about $30, a gold watch and chain and a diamond ring had been stolen from him.

The news of the hold-up soon aroused the entire section and the hunt for the thugs continued until past midnight, Delective Lynch leading the searchers. Finally, when the search was given up as hopeless, Lynch returned to his home. He was undressing to go to beil when a man rushed up to the house and told him that there were two rough-looking men in the rear of Russell's Hotel, at Third avenue and One Hundred and Eighty-fourth street.

The detective hurried to the hotel and arrested the two men just as they were about to leave the place. They were about to leave the place to the station, where one of the men was positively identified by a Mr. Erie, of Bathgate avenue and One Hundred and Eighty-third street, as one of two men whe had been following Suillvan shortly before the assault.

William Beaman, Who Attempted to Shoot Captain of Fire House, Asserts He Was Beaten and Humiliated.

William Beaman, a fireman connected with Engine Company No. 122, at 2 ulncy street and Patchen avenue. Brooklyn, was held in $1,500 bail for further examination in the Gates Averue Court, Brooklyn, to-day, charged with attempting to shoot William Gallagher, captain of the fire-house.

Gallagher, captain of the fire-house.

The hearing brought out the fact that the men have been at odds for several months past, iseaman showed signs of a beating and declared to Magistrate Furlong that Gallagher had continually persecuted him, had beaten him and subjected him to humiliation. Gallagher denied this, saying that Beaman had attacked him.

Magistrate Furlong was impressed with the sto vt told by Beaman. The fireman said that last night, after being assaulted, that he had armed himself to brotect his life and that he was forced to draw his weapon on the fire cantain, as a last resort.

"I will have to hold you under ball," the Magistrate said. "I will adjourn the examination until March 15, when, Beaman, you have witnesses here to prove your assertions that you have been persecuted."

"Red Star" Linens. -In P.

We have arranged with a manufacturer in Dunfermline, Scotland to weave Linens of new patterns and exclusive designs expressly for us. They will bear the "Red Star" brand, which alone is sufficient assurance of matchless quality. This arrangement, while necessitating the purchase of larger quantitles than ever before, gives us distinct price advantages, enabling the quotation of lower selling prices than many merchants pay at wholesale for similar qualities. The following are recommended to lovers of beautiful Damasks, Pattern Cloths and Napkins:
